On the other side is 'Keep within Compass', a moral homily. The four images outside the compass show what

Description:

Creamware jug printed in black with 'Britain's Glory', 'The Spinning Machine'. The man gestures to the small boy below the slogan "Liberty to the Sons of Britain". The small boy is one of the unfortunate children who worked removing debris from under the moving spinning machines and were often maimed or killed in the process. Not much liberty for them.
