Add to My Gallery | Create an Album
View PDF

Printed and Painted

The items included in this section exhibit an extraordinary variety of wares achieved by combining printing and painting techniques. Included are examples of printing with painting-in underglaze, examples of printing underglaze and enameling overglaze, as well as a combination of both. Both porcelain and earthenware bodies can be found in this section. In each example, the printing and painting techniques are described.