Description:

Tin-glazed earthenware (so-called delftware) tile printed in black by John Sadler in Liverpool. The printed signature is that of Sadler alone, which means that the engraving should predate his taking Guy Green into partnership in 1761. The border was specially designed for this particular design of tile, which was the normal practice at this early period.. The waterman in the boat is evidently impressed by expand [\[+\]](#)
