

View PDF

Underglaze

Printing in multiple colors

Add to My Gallery | Create an Album

Additional Image:

enlarge [\[+\]](#)

A closeup of the spray of auricula and wild roses in pink and green on the body of the jug.

enlarge [+]

A closeup showing more detail of the border design that includes black sprays of flowers alternating with white scroll work on a border of blue.

Shape Type

Miscellaneous

Pattern Type

Plants

Date

about 1835

Dimensions

- Height: 5.50 in (13.97 cm)

Maker

Enoch Wood & Sons

Worker's Mark:

Printed

enlarge [+]

Description:

A molded earthenware jug printed in four colors with the Wild Roses and Auriculas pattern. The four color transfer design includes black sprays of flowers alternating with white scroll work on a border of blue, and another spray of auricula and wild roses in pink and green transfer on the body of the jug. The black linear border design printed on the exterior is

expand [+]

BACK TO CATALOG INDEX

Printing in multiple colors

View All

Plants

View All

Examples by Maker

View All

Print Type Indexd

View All